

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dimitrie Cantemir Christian University, through its International Institute for Human Rights, and in collaboration with its local and foreign partners, kindly requests your presence at the International Conference

The Rule of Law: From its Origins to the Present

September 10-12, 2020

The Conference will be honored by Professor Matthias Mahlmann, President, and Professor Mortimer Sellers, former President of The International Association for the Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy, the Executive Committee members of the esteemed Association, as well as distinguished scholars from Michigan State University, Oxford Brookes and Sorbonne University.

The Rule of Law foundation entails a complex historical process, encountering both achievement and hindrance, with strong particular accents based on the social, political and cultural factors of each country. The event is addressed to teachers, researchers and experts, focusing on law sciences, as well as on interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary outlooks.

The Conference works will be in plenary session and within the following three panels:

1. The Rule of Law – Origins, Evolution, Features
2. The Rule of Law – Models and Specific Designs
3. Contemporary Challenges for the Rule of Law

The registration deadline is August 15, 2020

In extenso papers to be sent for publishing up to December 1, 2020

The participation fee is 75 EUR

PARTNERS

The International Association for the Philosophy of Law and Social Philosophy

The Leibniz Society
from Romania

Romanian Institute for Human Rights

ISCSC

International Society for the Comparative Study of Civilizations

The Romanian Academy of Law Sciences

The Academy of Europe

The Romanian Union of Jurists

MEDIA PARTNERS

ECONOMISTUL

