CIVILIZATION AT A CROSSROADS

The 50th ISCSC Anniversary Conference will give us an opportunity to reaffirm our vision Civilizations Matter; to encourage new research; to elicit new thoughts and approaches; and to reach a wide range of disciplines.

Does civilization function via its "tools": religion, culture, environment and infrastructure?

Examples of possible topics could include but are not limited to:

- Comparative Legal Histories and Literatures; Comparative Culture, Art, Values, Religion, Language
- East, West and Globalization; Comparative Environmental Protection and the Survival of Civilization
- Comparative Scientific Principles, Economic and Political Systems
- What Constitutes "Wisdom" or "Justice" Among Disparate Civilizations?
- Constructive Engagements Among Civilizations
- Education as the Transmission of Civilization; Romania Between East and West

Guide for Authors:

Abstracts of up to 300 words are to be in English or Romanian, using MS WORD, Times New Roman, 12-point font. Abstracts accepted for presentation will be included in program materials. Please include your name, contact email, phone number and professional affiliation on the abstract. Send abstracts to Program Chair John Berteaux Ph.D. at jberteaux@csumb.edu and Executive Director Peter Hecht at peter.hecht@iscsc.org

Important Dates:

Deadline for abstract submission is April 15, 2020. Notification of acceptance for presentation at the conference will be within two weeks of submission.

Deadline for Conference Registration is May 25, 2020. Registration details will be posted on the ISCSC website as they become available: www.ISCSC.org

You are warmly invited to register and attend whether submitting an abstract for presentation or not.

For questions regarding abstracts please contact Program Chair John Berteaux at jberteaux@csumb.edu or Executive Director Peter Hecht at peter.hecht@iscsc.org.
